Perspective Politice (PP) is an international, open access, peer reviewed annual journal published in print and digital format by the Faculty of Political Sciences of the National University of Political Studies and Public Administration in Bucharest.

PP welcomes articles in all fields of social and political sciences, aiming to cover the latest developments regarding political currents and ideologies, theoretical models, and research methods, in order to establish a space of dialogue where academics and intellectuals can shape and enhance their ideas. The topics accepted by Perspective Politice include, but are not limited to internal and international political analysis, rational choice theory, comparative politics, institutionalism, political theory, ethics, history of political thought, law and administrative studies, and political communication. Polemical exchanges between authors, built around methodological approaches or research results, are encouraged, given that they can add clarity and relevance to our academic field.
